

Hilke Diemer

Teacher (composition)
Nederland
31-07-1951

Hilke studied ballet at the Brabants Conservatorium. At the Rotterdam Dance Academy she did postgraduate studies in modern dance, impro/compo and Laban Movement Analysis. At the University of Amsterdam she obtained her MA in Theatre Science. From 1978 until 1985 she was a member of the executive board of the Rotterdam Dance Academy. Here she created the choreography department. She worked as a guest teacher at, among others, the university of Louvain la Neuve, Belgium, and Yildiz University, Turkey. In 2005 she started the Leonardo da Vinci project in Poland, in collaboration with Silesian Dance Theatre, to develop the curriculum for a new school for dance theatre in Poland. She taught dance workshops in Khartoum, as part of an exchange programme of Sudan University, Sudan National Theatre and the University of Amsterdam. She created dance pieces for several companies. In 2008 she obtained her Master in Theaterscience at the University of Amsterdam (UvA).